

Brief Author's Guide

Peer-reviewed and open-access journal Governance and Politics welcomes submissions of original and outstanding research manuscripts in the field of political science.

The Journal is focused on political theories, political institutions and processes, political ideology, international politics, public administration and governance.

The Journal is published by the School of Governance and Politics of the Moscow State Institute of International Relations (MGIMO University) and is of relevance to academia, practitioners and policymakers. Only manuscripts of sufficient quality, relevant research question and sound methodology that meet the aims and scope of Governance and Politics will be subject to a double-blind peer-review.

The requirements for a research article are the following:

- the submission of an article implies that it has not been published earlier in another journal or book, is not under consideration in another journal, has no more than three co-authors, all of whom agree with the publication of the submitted version of the article;
- length of the article without metadata: 40,000 – 80,000 symbols (with spaces);
- Microsoft Word format (.doc or .docx), 14 Times New Roman, 1.5 interval;
- the article has the following structure:
 - author's full name and affiliation (name, degree, occupation, ORCID, full affiliation with postal address, e-mail) in a separate .doc file;
 - short title reflecting the key problem of the article;
 - abstract (200-250 words). The abstract should provide a brief summary of the paper and include all key-words (8-10). It should contain the purpose, research question, methods, and results of the research;
 - the text of the article should be logically divided into several integral parts: introduction (contains the aim of the article, research question, discussion on why this question is important, literature review); methodology (research methods, theoretical basis, stages of research); results (the results of research are presented in a logical way); discussion (assessment of the results, their relevance, importance and limitations), conclusion;
 - the author is obliged to inform the editors about a potential conflict of interest by indicating such information. If there is no conflict of interest, the author adds the following phrase at the end of the article: The author declares the absence of conflict of interest;
 - • Figures and tables should not be scanned so that they could be edited. Pictures should be of high quality and sent separately (.jpg or .png). Figures, tables and pictures should have number and reference in the text as well as a source of data. A manuscript should indicate where each figure/table/box should be placed, e.g. <figure 1.1 here>. Images with low resolution at 72dpi (internet sourced) are not accepted. It is the author's responsibility to obtain permission for the use of image. The author is solely responsible for the accuracy of the images and/or maps used. If manuscript contains special characters (Chinese, Arabic, Cyrillic, characters not generally used in Western European languages, symbols, mathematics etc.) then a PDF version of the manuscript needs to be submitted and the special fonts used need to be listed;
 - References: List of references should be composed alphabetically. It includes academic literature, analytical reports and articles in academic periodic journals. DOIs should be given in the end of a reference. References on statistics, reports, legislative documents, internet resources should be organized as footnotes with full description and URL.

The Journal uses the APA style of references:
